

NANSI RICHARDS, Soprano Soloist with the Morrison Orpheus Choir, Swansea

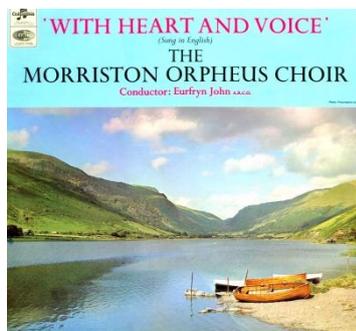

Welsh soprano Nansi Richards was the principal soprano soloist with the Morrison Orpheus Choir for many years. Here she is in 1973 just prior to the first USA and Canada concert tour.

LP RECORDINGS

1967 With Heart and Voice. Solo 'Great is Jehovah, the Lord'

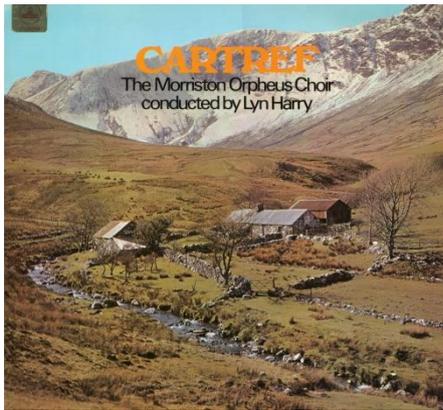

1969 God Bless the Prince of Wales. Solo 'The Easter Hymn'.

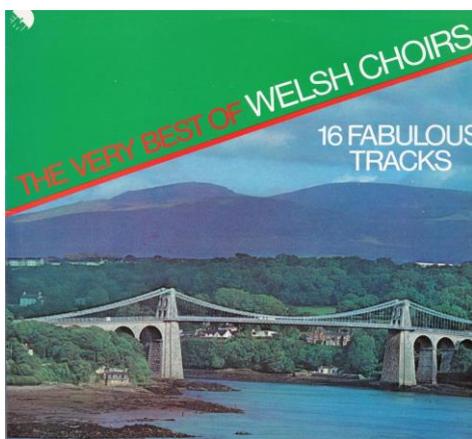

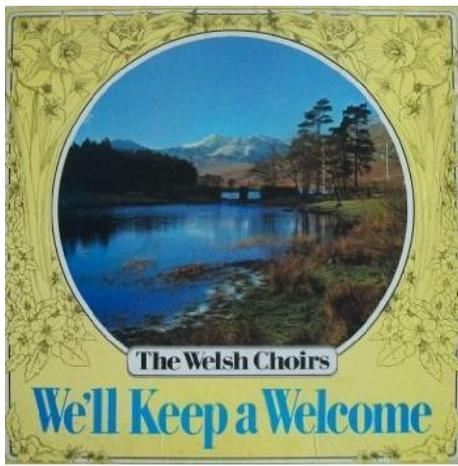

The review in the Gramophone Magazine 1969 said: The Morriston Orpheus Choir is in fine form, rich toned, clear and well disciplined. I do not care for the arrangement of Mozart's O Isis but this is my only serious criticism. Best of all I enjoyed the brisk and lively Cymru'n Un both for the choral singing and for Alwyn Jones's brief but pleasantly sung tenor solo, and the contrasting Gwahoddiad which follows. Nancy Richards's light and clear soprano, in an equally brief solo in Easter Hymn also contrasts admirably with the massed male voices. The organ accompaniments of Jennie Sims are sensitively done and recording is good.

1972 Cartref. Solos: Cartref and Unwaith etto

'Cartref' the solo also featured on the 1975 LP 'We'll keep a Welcome' and on the 1976 LP 'Very Best of Welsh Choirs'
